

For those who dare to look around the corner, think outside of the box and push the limits a little further. We graciously request you to ready your ears and senses for Future House Anthems. This is the latest release from the masters of innovation, W. A. Production. We are keeping you stacked with captivating sound samples that will provoke your curiosity and indulge your mix in the salvation of professional clarity and quality.

Future House Anthems is not only loaded with intriguing audio sound samples you can incorporate into your tracks, but we have also included our customized preset recipes for Sylenth, Spire and Serum. Inside the Future House Anthems pack you will find an abundance of uplifting sounds, wind-ups that gracefully elevate in pitch and tempo, deep bass sounds as smooth as the top of a rolling wave. Give in to the addictive elasticity of swelling lows, short and offbeat leads that carry you through a metallic future structure with contemporary energy driven by a ricochet of bouncing percussive sounds and effects. Dream in digital as you push the boundaries of House. Create emotive anthem style melodies, tech house beats, and big room synths. Make it your own, make it limitless with Future House Anthems from W. A. Production.
