

ANALOG : DEEP HOUSE FOR SPIRE. Spartan Sounds proudly presents Analog : Deep House for Spire.

This pack has been crafted by some of the best sound designers in the game. Each preset has been individually tweaked and perfected to give you the very best performance in your productions. Every preset featured in this pack has had some kind of effect programmed into the modulation wheel, some presets also include already programmed arp patterns which can be activated by simply turning on the arp feature. All oscillators off in means that some kind of interesting effect has also been programmed to bring some change to the preset.

The soundset contains over 65 royalty free presets. Vocals included in the demo are not part of the pack.
