

We at Laniakea Sounds are proud to present the new "Andrew Benson - Melodic House & Techno" artist sample pack. This package was recorded using professional production techniques. It includes an impressive collection of both trendy and underground melodic house grooves, combined with voluminous atmospheric sounds and emotional melodies. Provided to you 100% Royalty-Free, this sample pack will take you behind the scenes of Melodic House & Techno music.

Originating from Moscow, Russia, Andrew Benson has rapidly entered the electronic music scene. His work has seen worldwide recognition, with releases on Black Hole, Macarize, Proton Music, Silk Music, Moonbeam Digital, and Enhanced Music. He has been a pivotal figure in spearheading the Colorize label imprint well into 2018 with his distinctly unique sound. His tunes have racked over 3 Million plays on Spotify. 'Give It A Try' was featured on the legendary 'DJ Mag', who called it "a particular power progressive sound that's been nailed as [his] prototype by now. 'Give It A Try' strikes that clever balance of deeper grooves and trancier vibes."

Be prepared for inspiration with these innovative sounds: dynamic bass, tasty drums, exhilarating synths, lush pads, conceptual synthetic ambiences and unique FX's. "Every one-shot and loop was made with love and this is one way for me to share my music while helping other producers make their own", says Andrew.

Without a doubt, Benson's - Melodic House & Techno sample pack will bring you quality inspirational material. Download this sample pack today and take your production to the next level!
