

Downtempo Samplepack from Audenty Records is all about Ambient Loops and Rhythms.

If your track needs a shimmering, floating, trancy, atmospheric or mysterious touch, be sure to check this pack out.

You can use it for different kinds of genres, from lofi, ambient, trance and cinematic to trip-hop, hip hop or trap.

Downtempo Samplepack includes tempo-synced music, piano, pad and bass loops, as well as evolved drum loops, drum one-shots, fx and foley loops.

All loops have a certain processed sound that will easily fit in your music without much hassle, they have something special, which you don't find easily in other packs.

Inside you will find contemporary textures, chilling and interesting bass loops, granular processed piano and evocative synths.
