

“EDM for All” is the brand new Sample Pack from HighLife Samples. Almost 1GB full of energetic sounds are waiting to be used in your next track. In this pack you can find Construction kits, Midi Files, Drum Hits, Shot Samples, Ableton Projects files and Video Tutorials demonstrating simple techniques on how to speed up your production creativity.

You can find Construction Kits for Progressive House, Melbourne Bounce, Future House and Melodic Progressive Trance. This pack was inspired by leading labels such as Protocol, Spinnin, Armada and Revealed Recordings.

We have included all the sounds of Midi Files, Synth Shot Samples, Drum Loops, Drum Hits, Fx, Melodic Parts for each Construction Kit. You can work with no limit. This pack contains everything you need to learn and create similar tracks to your favorite djs. All sounds are designed to work well together and are ready to import directly into your project.

Are you weary of watching boring, long, inconsistent and mostly off-topic video tutorials?

Don't worry, we keep it simple.

We've included video tutorials that are of short length and display simple techniques to improve your productions.

Buy this pack, use these sounds on your next track and get the attention of labels' A&R.
