

Whilst the last years have been very difficult for most people across the globe, the Ibiza season has been something ravers and DJs alike have been itching to get back to...

Inspired by artists such as Martin Ikin, Michael Bibi, PAX, John Summit, and Darius Syrossian we are extremely proud to present our new sample pack series, The Sound of ... Eivissa!

Eivissa is the ultimate collection of over 2GB for those of you who want to produce Tech House, Tribal, House, Progressive, Disco, and everything in between. The pack features everything you need to create high-quality, dancefloor-ready productions. From bass loops and hits to drums and FX all the way to synth hits and presets and lastly our trademark songstarter construction kits. Plus, including a Bonus FLP project file to get you started at ease.

Still not sold? Just listen to the demo.

We are The Audio Bar and this is Eivissa.
