

will you follow me to the infinite sky?
as i close my eyes. i remember. everything that existed before.
sometimes i thought the tears would never end.
our key is the echo of these particles.
can you feel the eternal darkness of your past memories?
am i meant to live in this nothingness?
let the healing open the true emotion of these tears.
we are no longer human.
we are the nothingness.
do you believe in me?
do you believe in my destruction?
what will i become once i destroy the infinite sky?
will i become human?
will i be able to feel?
will the tears end?
