

Supercharge your future and deep house productions with 51 steroid-injected synth patches for Spire.

Inspired by the festival and chart-slaying sounds of Tchami, Pep & Rash and Oliver Heldens, Future House Sounds taps into one of the biggest genre explosions of recent years.

Packed with thick, fat and stacked FM-style basses; sharp and sleek portamento leads; percussive pizzicato plucks; festival-sized FX and more, the pack has all you need to craft of-the-moment future house anthems.

In total the collection contains 51 Spire patches.
