

Take your music production to new heights with Trance Build-Ups, a royalty-free sample pack designed to deliver the energy and excitement your tracks need. Featuring WAV loops of snare rolls, drum fills, downlifters, uplifters, risers, and impacts, this pack provides all the essential elements to craft outstanding build-ups.

With a tempo range of 138-140 BPM, these samples are ready to use as-is or can be time-stretched to suit your preferred tempo. While perfect for Trance, the versatility of this pack makes it suitable for other EDM genres such as Progressive House, Electro, and Techno.

Every sample in this pack is meticulously designed to bring intensity, drama, and seamless transitions to your music. And because it's 100% royalty-free, you can use these sounds in your projects with complete confidence.

Transform your tracks with Trance Build-Ups by HighLife Samples and deliver the impact your audience craves.
