

Freak Music is proud to present the "House of Drums" - collection of drum loops, exported drum patterns and extracted samples, created for every house music genre - electro, progressive, deep, chill. Full drum kits are coming with single patterns, so you can mix or use separated loops to craft your own sequence. There are included drum samples used to create every kit - kicks, snares, claps, closed and open hi-hats, rides and percussion sounds. You can do whatever you want - split, slice loops or just drag & drop along with the samples to create your own drum sequence. It is so impressive amount of choices to work with. This pack will become your first source to start creating your next catchy tracks.

All of these sounds are 100% Royalty-Free, so once purchased, you can use them in your commercial releases without having to pay any hidden costs.
