"Maddy Tech" by Banger Samples is tech house with character: bold, pumping, and a little crazy. This sample pack is designed for producers looking for unconventional grooves, sharp percussion, and hooks that catch like a virus.

Inspired by artists like Fisher, Cloonee, James Hype, John Summit, and Mau P, but with the addition of their signature "mad energy" it all sounds like a club hit that hasn't even been released yet, but is already in the heads of dancers.

Includes loops and one-shots, ready for immediate use. Perfect for creating tracks, remixes, or experiments where punch, style, and a touch of chaos are key.

Upgrade your production sessions with sounds that sound like tech house on steroids.
