

Shocking Synthpop For Vital is a cutting-edge soundbank that merges the best of both worlds: futuristic tones and classic vibes. The 1980s sound is making a massive comeback, shining through decades of musical innovation. As producers dive into their origins, this Vital preset collection delivers the nostalgic, analog sounds you crave, infused with contemporary finesse. Witness the rise of artists such as The Weeknd, M83, and fresh tracks by David Guetta and Dua Lipa, who have masterfully blended the essence of the past with the innovation of the future. Inside this preset pack you will find sounds suitable for genres such as Synthwave, Cyberpunk and Retrowave.
