

'What About: Trance Essentials' is the deepest and the most epic library proudly created by the W. A. Production team. Inside this 1.5 GB product you will find 12 Construction Kits, bonus top loops and much more. Inspired by the hottest 'A State of Trance' tunes, Mark Sixma, Armin Van Buuren, Gareth Emery, AVA Recordings tunes and others.

All sounds were prepared and crafted by an experienced team of producers, so you are sure to receive only the best of the best. The demo speaks for itself.

This huge pack contains simply everything you need for creating your own majestic tunes.

Construction Kits are the most complex parts of each sample pack, that is why W.A. Production have decided to focus more on them and thanks to this decision are now able to provide you 12 Construction Kits for an absolutely fantastic price!

W. A. Production delivers another ultimate must have pack, so enjoy.

Also included are two tutorials with DAW session and samples provided.
