

Cloudy Samples is proud to present the "VXNX" - collection of five meticulously made construction kits, crafted for producers who blur the lines between chill, trap and ambient electronica. This pack delivers a fully immersive toolkit designed for effortless creativity and instant vibe, shaped to sit perfectly in modern chilltrap and downtempo trap production.

Every construction comes with WAV Loops and MIDI Files along with Spire Presets, so you have unlimited possibilities to change the tempo, velocity and key. Whether you want to build around the original idea or flip it into something new, you have complete control over every layer. Every sound has been carefully processed for warmth, space and clarity - so drop them right into your DAW and spark inspiration instantly.

Please Note: To access synthesizer presets, you need Reveal Sound's Spire.
