

Producers if you demand the latest and greatest in audio samples, this pack will blow your mind and exceed your expectations. Want to conquer the world of Dubstep? Got a great song but not the right samples? Your song deserves professional sounds. Get ready for What About: Dubstep Giant from W. A. Production. This pack includes metallic bass lines, soaring pads, imaginative leads, crazy wubs, and wobbles plus smart frequency snare and kick hits, plucks, sub-bass, mechanical screeches, and synth stutters. This pack is bursting with power and precision.

Sick of the boring trends in the old school Dubstep? Be a part of re-inventing the gladiator machine. This new breed of Dubstep is a surefire to keep the heads banging and the floor at full capacity. The expansive creativity of our professional sound designers knows no limits. They have created this Dubstep Giant pack with versatility in mind. A variation of Dubstep sounds included in this pack will allow you to create every kind of Dub you could want. From beautiful melodic step to down and dirty vomit step.

Did I mention the Construction Kits? 5 complete kits are also included. So if you need a track made fast or want to learn the ropes this pack needs to be in your library. These aren't just stems, the Ableton project file for each kit is included as well as MIDI and presets. This allows you to deconstruct and reconstruct any way that you want.
